HIGH
ALL STAR

Be courageous and be brave and in my heart you'll always stay . . .
Forever Young

May the good life be with you, down every road you roam

May sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home

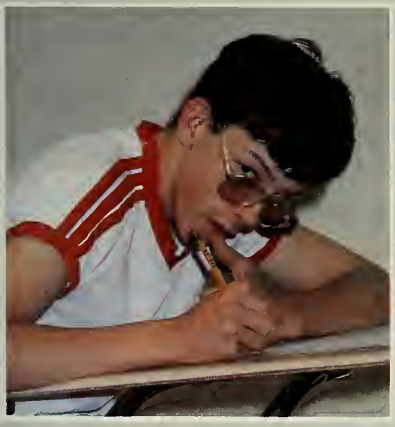

But whatever road you choose, I'm right behind you, win or lose . . . Forever Young

May you grow up to be proud, dignified and true

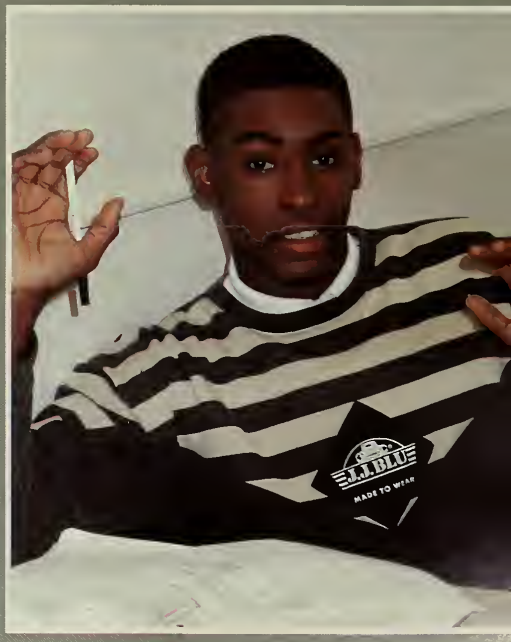

And may you do unto others as you'd have done to you

IT'S AMAZING WHAT ONE CAN ACCOMPLISH WHEN ONE DOESN'T KNOW WHAT ONE CAN'T DO

May you never love in vain and in my heart you will remain . . .
Forever Young

When you finally fly away, I'll be happy that I served you well

For all the wisdom of a lifetime, no one can ever tell

DEDICATION

The class of 1989 is pleased to co-dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Delores L. Staton. Mrs. Staton joined the staff at Norwood High School in 1957 as a member of the Foreign Language Department. She served as department head from 1972 to 1987, leading the department to develop modern approaches to curriculum revision and language lab development. The class of 1989 joins previous classes in saying "thanks" for years of dedicated teaching and "best of luck" in the years ahead.

The class of 1989 is also pleased to co-dedicate this yearbook to Miss Barbara G. Hanks. Miss Hanks joined the Norwood faculty in September of 1965, in the business department. She was approved Department Head in January 1969 and has led the business department in curriculum development and a modern approach to course offerings. Miss Hanks has supplied superior leadership in her years at Norwood High School. The senior class congratulates her and wishes her well.

Mac Donough and Roderick Smith from the Public Schools, and Dr. Robert Wainer.

In pursuing the traditional activities, the Honor Society ran a peer tutoring service which provides assistance to international students as well. Over 5000 Bay State League Hockey Programs were distributed in five towns. $1200.00 was raised from the Phone-a-thon for the American Heart Association. The annual banquet was held at Nick's Restaurant on April 6th.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

HILDE UDAHL

I have been here for one year as an exchange student — and this has been one of the best experiences of my life. I live with my brother and his wife — they are the best host family anyone could dream of!

I have learned so many different things here. Mostly all the differences between the U.S. and Norway. All the people are so friendly. I would like to thank some of the teachers and friends for all the support they gave me when I needed it most.

Other differences are the food and prices. It's really strange I haven't gained any weight after all the cheeseburgers I ate here. A cheeseburger at McDonald's in Norway is about $2.50.

Living in another country as an exchange student has been my dream for the longest time — and it finally became true. I want to end this by thanking you all for making my dream as wonderful as it ever could be.

Thanks!!!

These Are the Times to Remember . . .

It's About Time (Literally)

These are very special times to remember — our times together as the class of 1989. These few pages help define exactly w

That was Then . . .

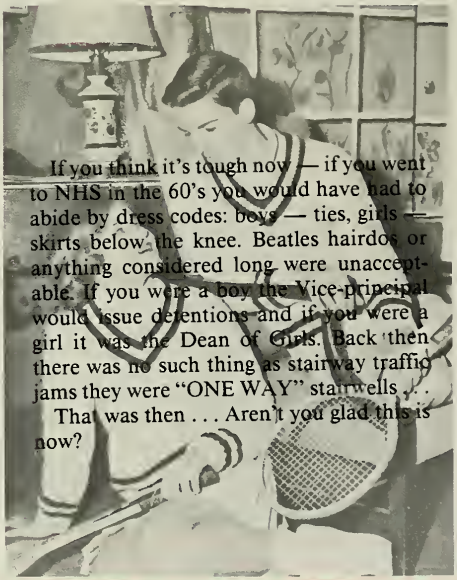

If you think it's tough now — if you went to NHS in the 60's you would have had to abide by dress codes: boys — ties, girls — skirts below the knee. Beatles hairdos or anything considered long were unacceptable. If you were a boy the Vice-principal would issue detentions and if you were a girl it was the Dean of Girls. Back then there was no such thing as stairway traffic jams they were "ONE WAY" stairwells . . .

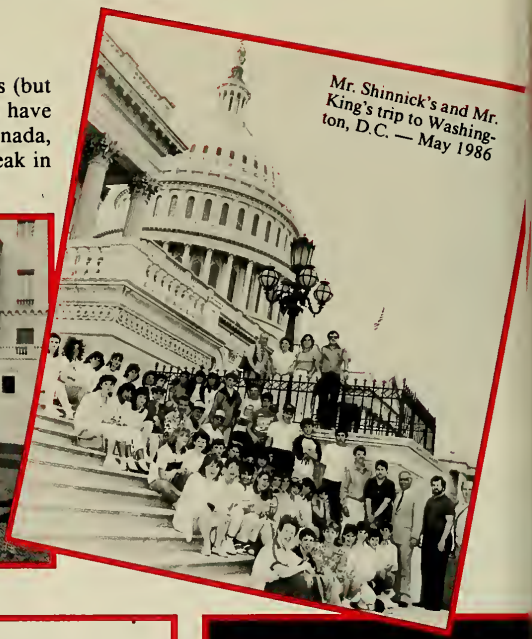

That was then . . . Aren't you glad this is now?

'cause they will not last forever . . .

TRAVEL TIME

TRAVEL TIME

As a class, we represent a pretty well traveled group of teens (but why would anyone want to leave Norwood?) Most students have vacationed in Florida, participated in the class trips to Canada, Washington, and even Europe, and are planning for Spring break in the Bahamas or Cancun, Mexico.

Mr. Shinnick's and Mr. King's trip to Washington, D.C. — May 1986

Mr. Toll's Europe trip — Monaco.

QUESTIONS WE CAME HOME FROM CANADA ASKING — 1986 —

Who is raven?
Just who are Sergeant Forrest's soldiers?
Who was the funny man in the shower cap?
Which chaperone strolled the aisle of the bus singing her own renditions of "Heart"?
The people in the front of the bus still want to know what the people in the back of the bus were doing . . .
Where are the pretzels, Jamie?
Why was the customs inspector curious about the rubber chicken?

"¡Ole!" Mrs. Delaney's April trip to Spain — 1988.

"Katherine's trip to Boston" where she m Bono outside the Four Season's Hotel after U2 concert (May '87).

Cheerleader's trip to Florida.

Mr. Toll's April trip to France — 1988

ON YOUR OWN TIME on your own time

Alien High

Once upon a time in a land very far from here, there was a school. I once visited that school and attended several classes.

As I walked through the school, I couldn't help but notice the woman who simply could not stop moving around. She danced, and she jumped, and she flailed her arms around while yelling through the hallway. "The bell is going to ring; get to homeroom, people."

Struggling through my first morning, I encountered a teacher who just could not remember whether or not he had said, "Good Morning."

In another class the teacher was very interested in having us see "The Big Picture."

At lunch I noticed a man walking around, as if looking for something, I wondered if perhaps it was for the glasses on his forehead.

During the afternoon, I met a teacher who must have thought the entire class was blind. He kept asking, "You see? You see?" I also encountered a teacher who just could not stop giggling, maybe he thought the man across the hall in the yellow checkered pants was amusing. Or maybe he too found the assignment given by the English teacher to write a twenty line poem on the dumpster experience, amusing.

Perhaps it was simply the language barrier, or perhaps I was just not used to their strange customs, but to me it seemed that these teachers had some very strange habits. I wondered to myself if anyone else noticed these things, or if it was just me. And so that day, in the high school very far away, ended, and I have lived happily ever after.

Erin McTernan, Senior

Theirs

When I hear them mocking theirs
And wishing theirs were gone,
I can only sit and stare
And wonder what went wrong.

When I tell them this and more,
They laugh and view me sadly.
They don't know that, if given the chance,
I would take theirs gladly.

If they realize what they have,
I hope they hold strong.
For when I did (and far too late),
All I heard was,
"She's gone."

Patrice Wynne, junior

Too often I let a word slip;
Quickly responding, I will quip
In an angry temperament, like a fire is hot,
An unjust phrase, a prejudiced thought
That I wish I could retract.
Oh please, God, let me take it back.
Let deeper thoughts reveal
The things I truly feel,
Rather than these shallow lyrics
Emerging from my insensitive lips
Like a wild brier among cherry rose hips.
But with more profound cogitation,
I come upon an unhappy contemplation:
Are these superficial conclusions of mine
Just passing beliefs, lasting a short time,
Or are they really an enduring part
Of my moral code — a disturbing thought.

Sean Smith, junior.

GRADY ZONE

Every Friday night this place comes alive.
It's cellar with a bullked at 5 Ridgewood Drive.
When you enter they take pictures in all sorts of poses,
Then we kick it live with some good Guns + Roses.
Although there is some danger if the yips are supplied,
Come Monday morning it can all be "denied."
Now it's late at night and it's time to go home
You leave that special place known as the zone.
It's not like any parties given at the Brady's,
Cuz you're always in the jungle when you're at the Grady's.

Price We Pay

Does it always seem lately like you're always short on cash? Constantly begging and scrapping fo pennies? Jumping at the chance you brother or sister goes out so you can ear apart their room to find their piggy banks? Well, congratulations, you're finally a senior.

The cost of being a senior has always been high, and it only gets worse as the year goes on.

It all starts in September when everyone signs up for the dreaded SAT's. This is only the beginning of the college money we hand out. College application fees have to be paid, trips to colleges have to be financed, and Achievement Tests m be done also.

Then, just when you think you're going to be able to save some money, the Semi comes. There are dresses and suits to be bought, flowers and boutonnieres to be ordered, and tickets to be purchased.

By the time the Semi is over, the Christmas season is upon us and there's still no money to spend. You manage to scrape by by giving presents from Stop & Shop and hop no one will notice.

Winter falls upon us, and we're all dreaming of our Spring Breaks in Florida the Bahamas, or Bermuda. We're also dreaming of how we can convince our parents to lend us the money for this "educational" experience.

We arrive back tan and penniless only to shovel out more money to look acceptable on that special night: the Senior Prom.

Finally graduation arrives. Your senior year is over. You look back on all the good times you had and don't even think about how much money was spent, how many dresses were bought that were worn only once, how many shoes were lost at proms, how many times you went ou to eat and bought for everyone. Isn't that what being a senior is all about?

FACULTY BACK TO THE FUTURE

Mr. Bill Lyons has been an English teacher for nine years. He attended Stoughton High and was the president of student council, a Jr. class officer and was involved in Basketball, Football, Tennis, and Cross-Country Track. Mr. Lyons claimed to have been an average student in school. "There was one thing specifically about High School I wish was different," states Mr. Lyons. "I became very interested in certain topics and I would appreciated more class time to study it in detail." There are 4 main reasons why Mr. Lyons enjoys teaching. "#1 — I have always enjoyed working with kids. #2 — My mom was a teacher. #3 — Teaching is a glamourous profession that affords me the wonderful lifestyle that I now live. And most important, #4 — Every day I laugh!" When little Billy Lyons was a young lad he said he wanted to be a professional Basketball player — and during off season, a stuntman in the 'Dukes of Hazzard' or HeMans Assistant.

Mrs. Patricia Tilley has been teaching English her whole life. She attended Norwood High, although she hesitates to reveal such information now. While in high school, Mrs. Tilley played softball, basketball (she was the center), and was on Student Council. She also enjoyed singing in the shower as a teenager. She categorizes herself as a superior (average) and well liked student. When asked what influenced her to become a teacher, Mrs. Tilley automatically responded, "lack of guidance." Mrs. Tilley's dream as a child was to become either an oceanographer or a beach-bum.

Ms. Jean Brady has been teaching English for 15 years. She attended Melrose High School. During her H.S. years she was in the Honor Society, Yearbook Staff, Prom Committee, Glee Club ("by accident"), and was also a Cheerleader. "I became a teacher because I always liked school, teenagers and learning." When Jeanie Brady was a little girl she imagined herself as either an airline stewardess or a teacher. She dropped the stewardess idea when she later found out she didn't like to fly.

Mrs. Patricia E. Ingraham has been teaching English forever. She attended Lisbon High, home of Stephen King, in Lisbon, ME. As a student, she participated in many activities. She played the clarinet, managed the softball team, acted in the senior play, and was a cheerleader. Mrs. Ingraham classified herself as a good student. "I was the studious type and well organized, but a bit of a nerd. I also talked too much." Mrs. Ingraham was greatly influenced by her Sr. H.S. English teacher who was "quite dashing, very exciting, and owned lots of shoes." As a young child Mrs. Ingraham's dream was to write Nancy Drew Mystery Stories when she grew up.

Mr. Walter Peterson, an English and U.S. History teacher, has been teaching for 29 years. He attended Needham High and worked his way up to Dartmouth College. In high school, Mr. Peterson played the trombone. he classified himself as a very good, well liked student. Although Mr. Peterson originally majored in Civil Engineering in college for 2½ yrs., it was his Sr. H.S. English teacher who influenced him to teach. He states, "I like teaching a lot — I wouldn't want to get out." Mr. Peterson's childhood fantasy was to become a submarine captain.

CONTROVERSY

1988-1989 school year was certainly a controversial one, both locally and nationally. The main spark that kept the local fires burning was the school newspaper THE HILLTOPPER — run by Mr. Lyons. In its first consistent year of publication, the paper managed to stir up some heated lunchroom conversations; but more importantly, it was a source through which all classes were free to voice their opinions. One issue that we all followed closely was the decision concerning our senior prom. Throughout THE HILLTOPPER, the underclassmen gave their thoughts on the matter, and the seniors were given the chance to let faculty and administration know they planned on salvaging the class of 89's reputation through well-written articles by Suzanne Decareau, David Provencher, Jeff Donahue, Ethan Flaherty, and others.

Prom Faces Cancellation

NORWOOD — School officials are threatening to cancel the senior prom because students got drunk at a dance in November, but parents want to know why they weren't consulted first.

Stories printed in area papers and the Boston Globe over the weekend said the prom had been called off. This morning, school officials said they had threatened to call off the prom unless class members can come up with a self-policing plan, but no official decision has been made.

"We told them we are not going to have a prom the way we had this (November) dance. We want assurances from the students this wouldn't happen again. If we don't get assurances, we're not going to support it," high school Principal John Piccirilli said this morning.

Four students were suspended, one alumnus was ejected and another was arrested because of drunken rowdiness during a semiformal senior dance attended by 325 people at a hotel ballroom on Nov. 10.

"We want some ideas. It's their dance. Let them be responsible for it."

Parking Pandemonium (as usual)

Besides the prom controversy, the paper was also battleground for the parking lot dilemma. This was an especially tight year for parking spaces due to the lack of the formerly free spaces in the faculty lot. With all the new Junior High faculty using these spaces, students are left no choice but to get to school early or park a block or two away. Juniors and Seniors posed their views; however, no solution was decided upon.

"Good Morning N.H.S.!!"

'89 was a year of firsts — Everyone was excited about the T.V. Communications class' morning news cast which, with its visual effects, livened up homerooms throughout the school. People actually paid attention to the announcements.

CLASS WARS

With the addition of the Freshman class to the school building we started off the year a little too close for comfort, according to sophomores and freshmen (clap clap slap); However, many of the problems were just simple misunderstandings, and before long everyone adjusted to their new surroundings. Hostile feelings gave way to old fashioned class rivalry and Dan Farren incited the competition for Pride Week (whic seniors won) with his article "seniors w got it!"

SRS. — WE GOT IT

As winter beckons, the time has com to praise our principal, bask in the glo called Norwood, and rejoice, for we a the Mustangs, Norwood Mustangs. there anything else?

Because grades 9 and 10 are new N.H.S. and grade 11 has little, if an awareness or interest pertaining school events; I have taken the respo sibility upon myself, as Secretary of t Senior Class, to inform the student bo of a particularly exciting event.

The event I refer to is the secon annual Mustang Pride Day, a merry c casion where all four grades compete decorating their class hall to see whi class has the most school spirit.

This jolly festivity will take place Tuesday, November 22, and will judged by esteemed members of t Norwood community. The winni class will have its year imprinted upon plaque, and the special privilege claiming themselves the most spirit class at Norwood High School.

In conclusion, if any of the lowly mean really lowly, underclassmen f capable of competing against the far s perior senior class, bring it on, baby!

Let the games begin, losers.

Sincerely, Daniel J. Farren, Secreta of the High and Mighty class of 1989 Senior Class

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

It's hard to believe we are finally seniors, and looking forward to what the future has to bring us. As each year passes, those things that were once so important to us now seem laughable. Would you ever admit all those beaded safety pins (friendship pins) weren't actually given to you?

Did your PB and J come in a Mork and Mindy lunch box? Or "CHIPS," or Star Wars?

Recess was always the best — if it was nice out — groups could be found playing such games as:

Red Rover
4 square
Dodgeball
Chinese Jacks
Chinese Jumprope
T.V. Tag — you had to call out the names of your favorite shows:
"Happy Days" — the Fonz is always cool
Laverne and Shirley
Little House on the Prairie
Brady Bunch — come on, admit it
Scooby Doo
Sesame Street (of course)
Capt. Kangaroo
Wonder Woman
Hardy Boys

Who can forget their elementary school crush — or favorite teacher?

RECORD TIMES

Norwood High School athletes have long been known for their fine performances in every sport in the Bay State League. Little known to everyone however is that Norwood High has produced many students who have been very successful above and beyond the Bay State League.

The Norwood High School football cheerleaders represented our school at the National High School Cheerleading Championships in Orlando, Florida, this past February. Led by tri-captains Suzanne Nally, Mary Kelly and Michele Zuliani, the cheerleaders impressed a crowd filled with many adoring Norwood fans with their all time best performance which earned them a spot in the semi finals. This competition was featured on ESPN and brought our school National recognition.

Paul Fitzpatrick, a member of the junior class was an all star wrestler for the Norwood High team. He went on to win the state meet in his weight class and further went on to finish fifth in New England.

Brian Alty, a well known musician at Norwood high also received National recognition as well as a scholarship for his performance with the very talented NHS jazzband.

Karen Olsson, a junior, and Julie DiMaggio, a sophomore both competed on the international level at a gymnastic championship meet in Australia this past summer. Karen was also featured on Evening Magazine last year for her gymnastic accomplishments.

Erin McTernan who is a member of the Hockomock swim team in North Attleborough competed in the summer Bay State Games for swimming. She has also successfully competed on the state and New England levels and is going on to national competition in Canton, Ohio.

Michele Decareau, an outstanding athlete and student at Norwood high competed as one of the youngest members of her softball team in the junior olympics. As a starting left fielder, Michele assisted her team to a great showing in Texas.

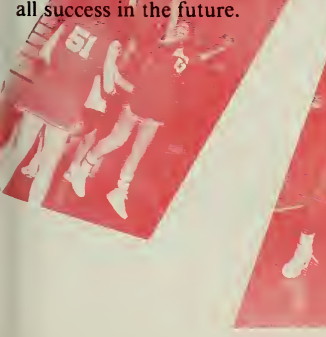

Lisa McCarthy, the leading scorer for the Norwood field hockey team competed in the Bay State Games and went on to play for an undefeated National Championship team in Irvine, California, where she was also the leading scorer.

Barbara Bushenell, another all star Norwood field hockey star also competed in the National Championships in California. She was the starting goalie for an undefeated team and went unscored upon.

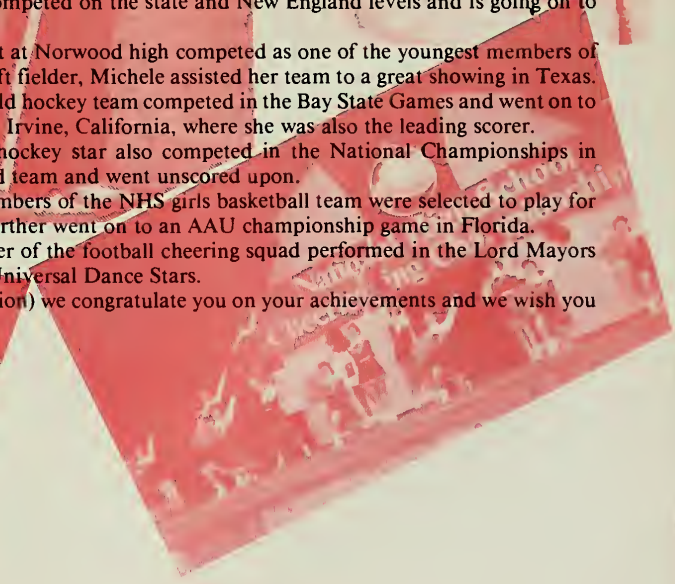

Lakisha Downing and Kim Brigham both all star members of the NHS girls basketball team were selected to play for the Bay State Games women's basketball team. They further went on to an AAU championship game in Florida.

Marilyn Madden, a Norwood high senior and member of the football cheering squad performed in the Lord Mayors New Year's Day parade in London, England with the Universal Dance Stars.

To all these people (and all those who we didn't mention) we congratulate you on your achievements and we wish you all success in the future.

Firefighter's Prayer

by James J. Metcalfe

When I am called to duty, God . . . Wherever flames may rage . . . Give me the strength to save some life . . . Whatever be its age . . . Help me embrace a little child . . . Before it is too late . . . Or save an older person from . . . The horror of that fate . . . Enable me to be alert . . . And hear the weakest shout . . . And quickly and efficiently . . . To put the fire out . . . I want to fill my calling and . . . To give the best in me . . . To guard my every neighbor and . . . protect his property . . . And if according to my fate . . . I am to lose my life . . . Please bless with Your protecting hand . . . My children and my wife.

CLASS DAY JUNE 2, 1989

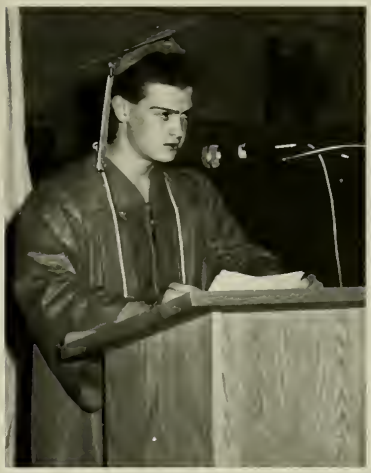

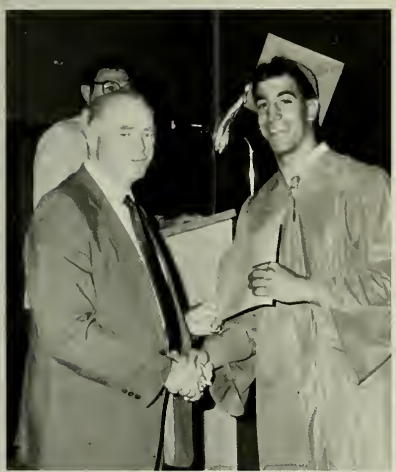

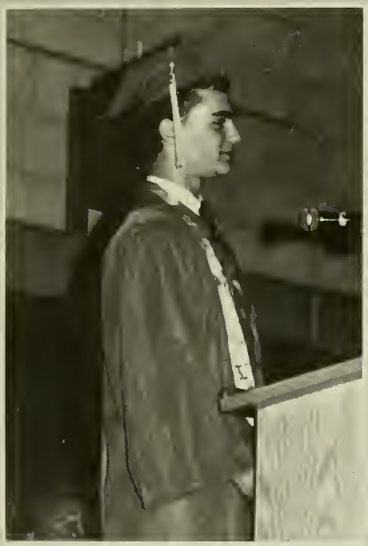

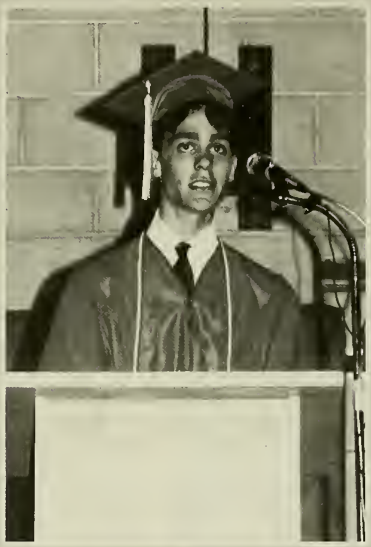

GRADUATION DAY

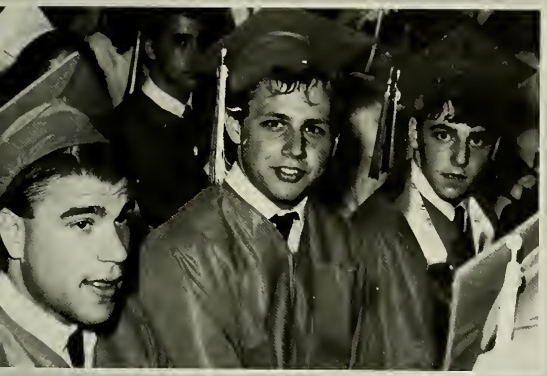

We, the members of the Norwood High School Class of 1989, being of relatively sound mind and body, do hereby acknowledge this document to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE 1: To Mr. Piccirilli, we leave an incident-free year, next year, so that he can ease into his much derserved retirement.

ARTICLE 2: To Mr. Gallahue, we leave a box of sunglasses for his office, so that those who come down for discipline can wear them whenever he wears those "flashy" sportcoats.

ARTICLE 3: To Mr. Usevich, we leave the title, "senior wanna be," and a suitable replacement for Janet Germano in his office.

ARTICLE 4: The class of 1989 extends their congratulations to the football cheerleaders on their New England title . . . and we also leave them in Florida.

ARTICLE 5: The class of 1989 gives a warm farewell to Hilde Udahl, who is our foreign exchange student from Norway, with hopes she leaves with great memories of Norwood High.

ARTICLE 6: Mario J. Costa leaves his successful weight loss plan to any underclassman who doesn't want to be overweight.

ARTICLE 7: To Mrs. Ingraham and Miss Brady, we thank them for their help and support over the years.

ARTICLE 8: To Yati Motipara, Mr. Parker leaves one last "SHUT UP!"

ARTICLE 9: The class of '89 leaves next year's Air Band with some "Macho Men."

ARTICLE 10: To Frank Wall, we leave a legitimate quote.

ARTICLE 11: We leave Mr. Baker best wishes on his departure, and a comb for those late morning rushes.

ARTICLE 12: SSSHH . . . To Mr. Giardi, we leave an absolutely silent pep rally.

ARTICLE 13: Congratulations to Brian Alty, Dave Doucette, David Troilo, and David Thompson for their outstanding performances in the jazz ensemble.

ARTICLE 14: Ken Wainer leaves half his S.A.T. scores to the junior class.

ARTICLE 15: Greg Gamel and John Powers leave their foreheads to Bill Jacobs and Shane Dacko.

ARTICLE 16: Sean Joyce, Jeff Vrable, Chris McTeague, Mike Joyce, "Boris," and Tim Tierney . . . leave.

ARTICLE 17: Dennis Folan leaves his title "Mr. Goodwrench" and his tool kit to Mr. Simpson.

ARTICLE 18: Mike Johnson, Luke Carroll, and Craig Preveza leave a list of suggested pranks guaranteed to work and not get you suspended . . . or arrested!

ARTICLE 19: We leave Mr. Voolich a double-sized dish for the salad bar.

ARTICLE 20: Barry Darling leaves next year's volunteer for hypnosis a pair of x-ray glasses, and fond memories of Lorri Joseph.

ARTICLE 21: Julie Sugrue leaves Mr. Doherty a student just like her . . . and also leaves Chris Sharkey a date they'll never have.

ARTICLE 22: The class of '89 leaves Koug's house, the Flume, and the Shack to next year's class to follow the traditions!

AND FINALLY, the class of '89 leaves the senior hall to the incoming freshmen with hopes that they keep the Spirit of the Class of '89 alive.
